

National Stroke Resources Atlas

Continuum of Care*	Resource	Description
Prevention and Promotion
Pre-Hospital
Emergency/Acute	Acute Stroke Management Resource (Web, 2008)	A resource to assist in the delivery of a workshop focused on acute stroke management. The resource incorporates the Canadian Best Practice Recommendations for Stroke Care: 2006. The target audience for this workshop is the clinical teams working with the acute stroke patient in the first 72 hours of stroke onset. The resource is comprised of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coordinator package • Speaker package • Neurological assessment DVD For more information or to obtain copies, visit www.heartandstroke.ca/profed Available in English and French.
	Faast FAQ's for Nurses (Print, 2008)	A written resource targeted for nurses that reviews pertinent information related to the recognition, prevention, management and recovery from stroke. For more information or to obtain copies, call 1-888-HSF-INFO (1-888-473-4636). Available in English and French.

Continuum of Care*	Resource	Description
Rehabilitation	Evidence-Based Review of Stroke Rehabilitation (Web,2007)	A Web site developed to review current practices in stroke rehabilitation. www.ebrsr.com
	StrokEngine (Web, 2005)	A Web site developed to focus on the most current information about the effectiveness of stroke rehabilitation interventions. www.medicine.mcgill.ca/strokengine Available in English and French.
LTC/Community
General	Nursing Best Practice Guideline: Nursing Management of Hypertension (Print, Web, 2005)	This guideline contains recommendations for nurses on best nursing practices for the care of adults with hypertension. It is intended for nurses who are not necessarily experts in the management of hypertension, who work in a variety of practice settings. This guideline was developed in partnership with the Registered Nurses Association of Ontario. www.rnao.org/Page.asp?PageID=924&ContentID=808
	Nursing Best Practice Guidelines: Stroke Assessment Across the Continuum (Print, Web, 2005)	This guideline assists nurses working in diverse practice settings in the assessment and/or screening of stroke survivors, focusing on evidence-based recommendations to support assessment/screening. This guideline was developed in partnership with the Registered Nurses Association of Ontario. www.rnao.org/Page.asp?PageID=924&ContentID=820
	Stroke Pocket Cards	A package of 5 pocket cards including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stroke Symptoms • Functions of the Brain • Cranial Nerves • Canadian Neurological Scale (CNS)

March 2008

2

* It is intended that the educational resources listed be used across the care continuum. The placement of a resource in a particular section of the continuum indicates where the resource is most likely to be used.

Continuum of Care*	Resource	Description
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="810 267 1499 297">• National Institute of Health Stroke Scale (NIHSS) For more information or to obtain copies, call 1-888-HSF-INFO (1-888-473-4636). Available in English and French.
	Core Elements of an Integrated Stroke Strategy	A schematic overview of the core elements that support the development and sustainability of an integrated stroke strategy. www.canadianstrokestrategy.ca/eng/resourcestools/core_elements.html or www.canadianstrokestrategy.ca/fr/outilsressources/elements_essentiels.html
	The Social and Economic Impact of Providing Organized Stroke Care in Canada	A report produced by the Canadian Stroke Strategy on why it makes sense to have an organized system of stroke care. www.canadianstrokestrategy.ca/eng/professional/tools.html or www.canadianstrokestrategy.ca/fr/professionnel/outils_fournisseurs.html
	Canadian Best Practice Recommendations for Stroke Care: 2006	Developed as a result of an extensive review of national and international evidence-based stroke best practice recommendations and guidelines. www.canadianstrokestrategy.ca/eng/resourcestools/best_practices.html or www.canadianstrokestrategy.ca/fr/outilsressources/pratiques_optimales.html
	Canadian Best Practice Recommendations for Stroke Care: 2008 Toolkit	The Canadian Best Practice Recommendations for Stroke Care: 2008 is a resource to help regions/strategies to introduce the Best Practice Recommendations and educate staff about the recommendations. For more information or to obtain copies, visit www.heartandstroke.ca/profed Available in English and French.

Provincial/Territorial Contacts

Province	Contact
British Columbia	www.canadianstrokestrategy.ca/eng/provincial/provincial.html
Alberta	www.strokestrategy.ab.ca
Saskatchewan	www.hsf.sk.ca/siss
Manitoba	dkrack@heartandstroke.mb.ca
Ontario	www.heartandstroke.ca/profed
Quebec	Francine.marin@fmcoeur.qc.ca
New Brunswick	Health.promotion@hsf.nb.ca
Nova Scotia	Hcharania@heartandstroke.ns.ca
Prince Edward Island	csinclair@hsfpei.ca
Newfoundland and Labrador	lthorne@heartandstroke.nf.net

March 2008

4

* It is intended that the educational resources listed be used across the care continuum. The placement of a resource in a particular section of the continuum indicates where the resource is most likely to be used.